Fisherman's Wharf

Fisherman's Wharf roughly encompasses the northern waterfront of San Francisco. It was where fishermen landed in the 1800s during the California gold rush, and over the decades came to be a tourist spot known for its shopping and incredible seafood restaurants. As one of the West Coast's most visited tourist attractions, it adds a little analog to the Silicon Valley experience.

Courtyard by Marriott Fisherman's Wharf

Located in the heart of Fisherman's Wharf. Leave your car with our friendly valet service and walk to Pier 39, Ghirardelli Square, North Beach or catch a ride on a cable car.

Sheraton Fisherman's Wharf

Fully renovated, Sheraton Fisherman's Wharf hotel offers amazing experience with inspired amenities. Hotel is located in one of the San Francisco's most sought-after neighborhoods and is close to the top attractions.

Hotel rates must be called into Airnets Call Centre; hotel rates must be booked with airline partner. All Rates are in Canadian dollars and must be paid in full. Once confirmed the hotel room is non refundable.

Some places are attractions within the larger destination, but a few are the destination itself. Disneyland is one of those handful of places where people visit, stay next to (or within, in this case) and never see anything else. It might be the most famous tourist attraction in the world that isn't a historical landmark or part of nature; no childhood is complete without a trip to the Magic Kingdom!

Castle Inn and Suites

Located across from the Disneyland Resort and the California Adventure, this castle-themed Anaheim hotel features a heated outdoor pool, hot tub, and children's pool.

Sheraton Park Hotel at the Anaheim Resort

ideally located within walking distance to the Disneyland Resort. All suites featuring private balconies with views of either the lushly landscaped patio and pool area, or the Disneyland Resort and GardenWalk!

Texas

Texas is in many ways what people think about when they think of the prototypical American and what is prototypically American. Big, brash, wealthy and unconcerned with how you think of it, but with a heart of gold and an energy and ingenuity that helps create the future we will live in. Oil and cattle drive Texas, but Big Tech is gaining a foothold; one day you might visit a ranch in West Texas, and the next day, an artificial intelligence company in Austin. Everything's bigger in Texas!

Residence Inn Austin Downtown

Centrally located in downtown Austin, Texas this hotel is adjacent to the Austin Convention Center. The all-suite hotel features fully-equipped kitchens in every suite.

Hyatt Regency Houston

This Houston hotel boasts several on-site dining venues, most notably, Spindletop, the city's first rotating dining room. Rooms feature views of Downtown Houston.

Chicago

Chicago has often been cast as the little brother to New York, but we defy anyone to find missing from The Windy City anything there is in the Big Apple. The city has a distinctly working-class soul, while also indulging in the finer things in life. There is truly an addicting vibe to the City of Big Shoulders, at once less judgemental than its east coast sibling, while retaining as much of the drive for greatness as any city.

Sofitel Chicago Magnificent Mile

The stylishly renovated Sofitel Chicago Magnificent Mile presents an opportunity for travellers to experience the wonder of The Windy City through a creatively re-imagined French lens.

Best Western River North

The newly renovated Best Western River North is located within minutes of most of Chicago's most favoured attractions. Guests enjoy spectacular views from the rooftop deck as well as all the modern amenities for a comfortable stay.
